Hi Frank,

These alternate sites are complete news to me and have not been part of any of the discussions. I have attached the Traffic Plan which is pretty much the same plan as last Saturday with a few updates. As you read through the plan, you will see that there are no alternate staging sites.

This may seem contrary to what was announced on the media scrum by the executive, but we confirmed with the Event Commander Supt Jamie Dunlop that there are no other staging sites organized by OPS (with the exception of the Jetform Park location) which is being considered. There were various discussions about other "city properties" but none were approved.

Rob

Thanks Debbie, Kelly Cochrane asked that we (I) contact Public Service as well as the City of Ottawa (official ask though herself) for overflow parking. She suggested Tunneys' (Feds) or any city property... I don't want to duplicate work already done

Hi Debbie. Do we need overflow parking for the truckers? I was asked by City of Ottawa to make the ask to Public Services.

Subject: Updated Traffic Plan

Folks,

This is the updated traffic plan that was just provided by the Traffic Planners. Please see the tasking rational for each traffic locations starting on page 10. OPP and RCMP will be provided with the taskings associated with their assigned locations. For the next day, it might be prudent to have your Traffic Rovers checking in with them to confirm that they understand their assigned roles.
